

November 15, 2021

CONSTITUTIONAL MEETINGS HELD BY VIRTUAL PLATFORMS

The National Executive Board, at its September 7 to 11, 2021 meeting, discussed the updated status of the COVID-19 pandemic and its effect on meetings stipulated in the National Constitution.

NEB RESOLUTION

The National Executive Board adopted the following resolution:

“It is MOVED, SECONDED and CARRIED that further to the May 2021 resolution, the NEB authorize all National meetings, normally held face-to-face under the National Constitution, continue to be held by virtual platforms until June 2022. The NEB will review the status of the COVID-19 pandemic at that time and any federal and provincial restrictions suggested or in place.”

Respective Officers for each constitutional meeting or conference will reach out to committee members and participants with information on how the meetings or conference will proceed.

MEETINGS AFFECTED

The meetings to take place by virtual platforms are:

National Human Rights Committee

December 3 to 5, 2021

April 1 to 3, 2022

National Presidents Meeting

January 14, 2022

National Executive Committee and Regional Executive Committees

January 17 to 19, 2022

National Board of Trustees

February 17 to March 3, 2022

National Health and Safety Committee

March 19 and 20, 2022

National Work Measurement Committee

March 26 and 27, 2022

In solidarity,

Beverly Collins
National Secretary-Treasurer

/akm cope 225
2019-2023/Bulletin No. 313

