Support for postal workers in face of drastic cuts to Canada Post

Dear, Bro. Denis Lemelin

UNI-LCJapan represents over 1 million skills and services workers in Japan in 12 unions, including the commerce, finance, post and logistics and telecom industries. We would like to express our support for members of CUPW who are struggling to drastic cuts to postal services.

We understand that Canada Post announced a series of drastic proposals to cut postal services to millions of Canadians in a purported plan to return Canada Post to financial viability, which will result in eliminating between 6,000 to 8,000 staff.

We understand that CUPW has vowed to resist the proposals and has for many years advocated for more innovative solutions to expand postal services and maintain a sustainable Canada Post. We support CUPW innovative solutions and policies.

Again, we express our solidarity for members of CUPW.

In solidarity,

Yasunobu Aihara
Chairperson
UNI Liaison Council Japan (UNI-LCJapan)
